Ford Government announces legislation impacting municipal governments and changes to cannabis implementation

The Premier and Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing Steve Clark today announced plans to introduce legislation next week that would reduce the Toronto City Council in advance of the October municipal elections and cancel elections for Regional Chairs in Peel, York, Niagara and Muskoka. The province's news release and backgrounder are found here.

Today's announcement was anticipated by no one and followed media reports about the government's plans which surfaced late yesterday. The government's backgrounder also makes reference to a planned, "review of regional governance across Ontario", and states it will begin with consultations at the upcoming AMO conference. AMO will press the government to learn more about what is intended by the review and keep members informed.

It is also clear that the government plans to implement an open and competitive retail market for cannabis. This approach is consistent with policy framework promoted by AMO during consultation with the previous government. The details and implementation planning will determine if this approach will be successful.

No matter how cannabis is sold in Ontario, municipal governments will have a critical role to play. Policing, by-law enforcement, public health, and economic development departments will all play a key role. AMO's advice to the provincial government is that they need to give municipal governments the time and ability to adjust to an open retail market for recreational cannabis. We are confident the province understands the importance of this advice.

Municipal governments in Ontario are on the front line of delivering critically important services that people and business in our communities rely on. The Government of Ontario has a role in creating a statutory and regulatory environment that that allows municipal governments to get on with their responsibilities. There is much that can be accomplished if Ontario and municipal governments work together to serve the people of Ontario and to identify and reduce the regulatory and reporting burden currently placed on the municipal sector. Ontario's people, businesses and communities want orders of government to work collaboratively to address their local, regional and provincial priorities.

Honourable Minister Lisa MacLeod
Minister of Children, Community and Social Services
80 Grosvenor Street, 6th Floor, Hepburn Block
Ministry of Community and Social Services
Toronto, ON M7A 1E9

Dear Minister MacLeod:

On behalf of the Simcoe Muskoka District Health Unit (SMDHU) Board of Health, I am writing to convey our profound disappointment at your recent announcement of your intentions to cancel the Ontario Basic Income Pilot, and to urge you to reconsider this decision. Your government's change in direction from your pre-election indications of continuing the pilot will leave the more than 4000 pilot participants facing extremely challenging circumstances, which is an unethical approach to a scientific endeavor. This pilot is recognized throughout our province and internationally as a pivotal opportunity to study the impact of basic income on a range of economic, social, and health outcomes in modern day Ontario. With the extent of the societal impact of poverty, income inequality, and growing precarious employment, basic income is widely recognized as a key policy avenue for exploration to help address these issues. A great deal of time and resources have already been invested in effectively planning and beginning to implement this pilot; we feel it would be a substantial waste to terminate it so prematurely, without the opportunity to first learn from it.

SMDHU has been a vocal proponent of the basic income concept since 2015. Among other actions, we sponsored a resolution at the Association of Local Public Health Agencies (alPHA) general meeting in May 2015, endorsing the concept of basic income and requesting that the provincial and federal governments jointly consider and investigate a basic income guarantee as a policy option for reducing poverty and income insecurity, available at this link. The full backgrounder informing this resolution, and a related resolution for the Ontario Public Health Association, is available at this link. In June 2016, SMDHU's Board of Health endorsed the Responses to Food Insecurity Position Statement of the Ontario Society of Nutrition Professionals in Public Health. This statement recognizes the strong link between poverty and food insecurity and urges the investigation of a basic income for reducing these phenomena. SMDHU's Board of Health has also written on several occasions to the previous provincial government, including to provide input into the design of the basic income pilot and to acknowledge the scientifically and socially sound approach to the design decisions.

Our support of basic income is informed by evidence of the powerful link between income and health. Twelve per cent of the population of Simcoe Muskoka live in low income. Those living with a lower income in our region are at far greater risk of experiencing a lower life expectancy -- two and a half years less for females and five years less for males, compared to those with the highest income. Moreover, the prevalence of self-reported chronic diseases, such as diabetes and heart disease, are one and a half to two times higher for those living in low income compared to their higher income counterparts in our region.

In the immediate future, we also strongly urge the Province to maintain the planned increase to social assistance rates. Current rates are highly insufficient to afford basic needs, including rent and nutritious food. The need for increased social assistance rates, as well as continuing the basic income pilot and creating policies that encourage good jobs with regular hours and benefits, is highlighted in SMDHU's campaign on food insecurity: No Money for Food is Cent\$less.

Ontario has the opportunity to continue its basic income pilot and to learn if, in fact, this policy option will help to provide people in poverty and precarious employment with greater opportunity - to live with dignity, to experience improved physical and mental health, and to fully participate in and contribute to society. We urge your government to maintain this pilot and its planned evaluation, so that future generations may benefit from this learning.

Sincerely,
