

Media Release

Town of Midland announces new Executive Director of Planning, Building and By-Law

May 13, 2021 – Adam Farr joins Town of Midland as the Executive Director of Planning, Building and By-Law effective June 21, 2021.

Adam joins the Town with a wide range of experience as a professional planner, in Alberta and Ontario. Adam has managed a number of diverse portfolios including but not limited to downtown revitalization; community engagement; Official Plans; heritage area zone design standards; advisor to First Nations Chief and Council on land management and economic development issues; performance based approaches to Industrial Land Planning; customer service; and continuous improvement projects for building and planning services.

Adam is a Registered Professional Planner with a Master's in Environmental Studies, Environmental Planning and Management from York University and Honours Bachelor of Arts in Policy Analysis from Western University.

The last two (2) years Adam has played a key role with the Town of Collingwood, as Director of Planning, Building, By-Law and Economic Development. Previously Adam held positions of: Manager of Development Review for City of Brampton and Town of Halton; Principal planner, City of Edmonton and Land and Resources Management Coordinator for Woodland Cree First Nation, Alberta.

For media enquiries, please contact:
Randy Fee | Communications & Marketing Coordinator
Town of Midland | 575 Dominion Avenue, Midland, ON L4R 1R2
705-526-4275 ext.2264 | rfee@midland.ca | Midland.ca | EngagingMidland.ca