Passing of Queen Elizabeth II

(September 8, 2022) The Town of Midland joins the world in expressing their deepest condolences on the passing of her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

“In all senses of the word, she was a remarkable human being and public servant as the Queen.” said Mayor Stewart Strathearn. “She dedicated her life to serve and to the caring of others and was beloved for her ability to relate to people all over the world. We were fortunate to have her visit our area, those lasting memories will forever remain in Midland along with the inspiring record of service we all admired.”

In honour of Queen Elizabeth II’s dedicated service, the flags at the Town of Midland Municipal Office have been lowered to half mast. On behalf of our council, the entire administration at the Town of Midland and our residents, we pay tribute to an extraordinary Queen and her everlasting legacy.
